"To compliment your hotel and team for such a successful Autumn Conference and what the team are describing as "the best ever"! I cannot praise or thank enough for the customer service throughout the entire 3 days, nothing was too much trouble and your staff went beyond the call of duty. The AV equipment in the rooms was outstanding and the staff were always on hand to help out with any queries."

"We loved the Radisson. My husband decided as we had an early flight that we would stay there, I felt it a little silly as we are only 40 minutes away but it was well worth it. The rooms are very nice, the kids went in the pool and I went to the spa for a manicure and pedicure and then we had dinner in the Italian restaurant. The Wine Tower with the 'Wine Angels' was fantastic! We parked there for a week and got our car straight away when we got back, no waiting was perfect. It is a really excellent hotel."

"With world class accommodations, a friendly, multi-lingual staff and direct access to a main hub for numerous discount airlines, the Radisson SAS Hotel London Stansted Airport is your best choice for pan-European meetings."

Serge Jonnaert, Business Unit Marketing Manager
Bio-Rad Laboratories

"The team pulled out the stops and truly gave your best. One of our most successful conferences ever and the team at the Radisson played an important part in making that happen"

Lee Ormesher, Customer Operations Director
TUI UK

"The hotel was absolutely superb. Very accommodating with lots of last minute changes they had to handle from us. I would highly recommend them. Meetings Coordinator was a total star and worked endless hours to make things just perfect. Super standards of accommodation, food and service."

Noelle Milas

"The highlight of this hotel is undoubtedly the wine rack in the conveniently named "Tower Bar" - where an Angel flies around the wine rack in awesome acrobatics."
